

Stakeholder session on the occasion of the US-Germany Cyber Bilateral Meeting

March 23, 2016

4.00-6.00 p.m.

Digital Society Institute

ESMT European School of Management and Technology

Schlossplatz 1, 10178 Berlin

The fourth US-Germany cyber bilateral meeting led by the U.S. State Department and the German Federal Foreign Office took place on March 22-23 in Washington, DC. As part of the program, a multi-stakeholder session was scheduled hosted by the Digital Society Institute at ESMT Berlin.

Christopher Painter, Coordinator for Cyber Issues at the U.S. Department of State and Ambassador Thomas Fitschen, Director for the United Nations, Cyber Foreign Policy and Counterterrorism at the Federal Foreign Office in Germany were prime speakers for the session, joined by their delegation colleagues.

The agenda included discussion on cyber foreign policy issues such as international security; combatting cybercrime; cybersecurity and critical infrastructure protection; cyber defense; Internet freedom; Internet governance; as well as current issues such as CVE and capacity building.